

HATCHHOPE

HatchHope Auction

March 2015

Welcome to our first HatchHope Auction (From March 13, 2015 — March 23, 2015)

As many of you know, over the past few months we have been raising funds to cover the cost of transporting approximately 22,000 books to Rusape, Zimbabwe. It is with great joy that we expand our fundraising campaign to include our first online auction!

How do you take part?

It is a wonderfully simple process. Take a look at the list of products we have available and email in your auction to auction@hatchhope.org

Q: What happens if I get outbid?

A: We will send you an email notification alerting you that you have been outbid, and time permitting, you can always resubmit a new bid.

Q: What happens next once I win an item?

A: We are collaborating with a company called Triple Crown Sports Memorabilia, Inc. whom have been generous enough to supply us with the awesome products you see here. Final transactions (including shipping and handling) will be through them. As such we will contact you with further instructions.

Q: Is it only open to people in the United States?

A: No. As long as you are willing to shoulder the cost of shipping and handling you can place a bid. For international purchases, please contact us for further information regarding shipping costs to your specific location before you place a final bid.

Q: Who do I contact for further information?

A: Please feel free to contact us at auction@hatchhope.org with any further queries you may have.
